HEREBY DECREES

Article 1 – Implementation

1. There is a public exam for the admission to the 3-year Ph.D. course – 34th Cycle – Consorzio FINO – organized into the curricula as per Appendix A, with administrative seat at the University of Genoa.
2. The public exam will consist in qualifications/publications.
3. According to the present notice, by 'qualifications/publications' we hereby imply the information contained in the application and in the curriculum vitae, reference letters, research projects, other qualifications mentioned under art. 3, paragraph 2, letter d), and paragraphs 3 and 5 of this public notice.
4. The following are indicated in Appendix A:
  - the Coordinator of the course;
  - the Department or any relevant coordinating body for research;
  - the number of places and grants, specifying the amount and the backers;
  - the names of partners, in the case of doctoral courses set up in partnership with other Universities and/or public and private bodies with the requirements of high cultural and scientific qualifications;
  - the information concerning the timetable, the contents and the testing procedures and the research themes for each course curriculum.
5. The number of grants may be increased on the basis of special agreements with public and private bodies, to be defined before the expiry date of this public notice.
6. The increase in the number of grants can determine an increase in the number of possible Doctoral candidates. The places in excess as per paragraph 3 of art. 8 of the Rules and Regulations for the Ph.D. Courses of the University of Genoa are excluded from this calculation.
7. Should the Ministry withdraw accreditation or not authorize it for one or more courses based on the procedures laid out by Ministerial Decree N. 45 of 08.02.2013, the implementation of the course will be immediately suspended;
8. The information, relative to the curricula activated, concerning the possible increase of the number of grants/places according to the previous paragraphs 5 and 6, as well as the timetable of the tests published in Appendix A of this notice of public exam, may be updated/amended on the university internet site at <http://www.studenti.unige.it/postlaurea/dottorati/> up to 15 days before the beginning of the tests.

Article 2 – Admission Requirements

1. Candidates who – within the expiry date of this public notice – hold a degree which has been conferred according to the rules and regulations in force prior to the reform of didactic freedom in universities, or a specialist/II level degree or an equivalent foreign academic qualification, may apply for the selection procedure without age or citizenship limitations. Candidates who obtain their degree after the expiry date of this notice shall be conditionally admitted as long as they receive their degree within the final date of 31 October 2018.
2. In the case of a degree obtained abroad and judged suitable, if the qualification has not yet been deemed equivalent, the candidate shall require that this recognition be granted for public exam purposes only. In such cases candidates shall also enclose the following documents:
  - a) a translation of the academic qualifications duly notarized by the Italian diplomatic or consular office of the country in which the qualifications were achieved;
  - b) a “Dichiarazione di Valore” (Declaration of Worth) of the qualifications drawn up by the same consular body.
3. The decree of equivalence shall be accepted solely for admission to the public exam and to enrol on the course.
4. If the Italian diplomatic or consular office does not provide the documentation in time to apply, one should enclose all the documentation available. The consequent decree of equivalence shall be accepted on condition that the legal translation and the “Dichiarazione di Valore” (Declaration of Worth) be presented within the deadline for enrolment on the courses for the candidates who have been admitted.
5. The issuing of the above-mentioned documentation and of a residence permit to participate in the tests and to attend the course to foreign nationals is regulated by the note of the Ministry for Education, Universities and Research, “Rules and regulations concerning the access of foreign students to courses for the academic year 2018-2019”, available at the following address <http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri/>.

Article 3 – Application

1. Applications for the selection procedure shall be submitted by means of the online procedure available at the address <http://servizionline.unige.it/studenti/post-laurea/dottorato>, by 12 noon (Italian time) of 12 June 2018 (the expiry date of the public notice). The application date of submission is certified by the electronic system which, at the expiry of the deadline, will no longer allow access and the sending of the application.

The electronic system will issue a receipt of the enrolment on the public exam, which the candidate must print out, sign and present when and if admitted to the course.

2. Applications shall report (self-certification) – under the candidates’ responsibility and at the risk of exclusion from the public exam – the following information:

- a) the applicant’s full name, tax code, date and place of birth, place of residence, contact telephone number and postal address chosen for the purposes of this selection. Foreign nationals should supply an address in Italy, otherwise that of their Embassy in Italy as the agreed place of domicile. Tax codes can be omitted by foreign applicants if unavailable, though this should be clearly stated;
- b) the title of the Doctoral course, the curriculum the candidate is applying for. The candidate may present his/her application for admission to no more than one curriculum of the course. Applications submitted after 12 noon of 12 June 2018 shall not be taken into consideration.
- c) the applicant’s citizenship;
- d) the type and name of degree held, date, grade and name of the awarding University or the equivalent qualification granted by a foreign University, as well as the documentation in which its equivalence has been granted or the request for equivalence issued for admission purposes only as per art. 2. Should the candidate graduate after the expiry date for admission to the public exam selection procedure, as long as he/she holds a degree within and not later than 31 October 2018, s/he shall be conditionally admitted and shall, at the risk of exclusion, complete the application by means of self-certification of the degree awarded to be presented to the Servizio Alta Formazione, to the email address altaformazione@unige.it, attaching a copy of a valid document of identity, within and not later than 31 October 2018;
- e) the possible situation of ‘grant holder from a foreign country’ or ‘grant holder within a specific syllabus of International Mobility’;
- f) only for foreign students: a declaration stating their level of knowledge of Italian;
- g) a commitment to duly communicate each/any change in residence or address.

3. Candidates may choose not less than one and not more than three referees to support their candidature. The referees must be university professors or experts in the subject. The referee letters must be sent directly by the referees, within the expiry date of the public notice exam, to the Coordinator of the doctoral course to the address FINO@unige.it. The names, status and work place of the referees chosen by the candidates must be stated in the applications.

4. When inserting the application, the guided procedure will request applicants to attach the receipt of the payment of € 50.00 as contribution to the selection expenses. Payment may be done after registration to the insertion system of the application and before the definitive submission of the application, exclusively by means of the University payment portal: https://www.studenti.unige.it/tasse/pagamento\_online/.

A bank transfer is not allowed, payments can be carried out only following the indications in the payment portal.

The payment of the contribution to the selection expenses is not enrolment on the public exam.

The contribution is not refundable, except in the case of ascertained double/mistaken payment.

5. The following documents should also be attached by means of the on-line procedure:

- a) a valid identity document, both sides should be scanned if it is an identity card or a driving licence;
- b) the candidates’ curriculum vitae et studiorum. The aforesaid curriculum may include all the information relevant to the subject themes of the doctoral course the candidate is applying for. This information, for example, may concern: previous research and/or work experience, any other qualifications (study qualifications included), certifications, publications, patents, etc.;
- c) a research project concerning one or more research themes of the doctoral course candidates are applying for as indicated in Appendix A (3000 words maximum, besides bibliographical references);
- d) a document containing the title, the table of contents and a brief description (500 words) of their dissertation, as well as a list of the examinations, the marks and, if possible, a brief description of the relative syllabuses;
- e) an extract of the II level degree dissertation thesis or a short essay of not more than 3000 words (including bibliographical references);
- f) only for those candidates who are applying as ‘grant holders from a foreign country’ or ‘grant holders within a specific syllabus of International Mobility’: documentation confirming the grant;
- g) the receipt attesting payment € 50.00 as contribution to be admitted to the public exam.

All attached documents must be in PDF format.

6. The documents as per the previous paragraph 5 may be either in Italian or English. Please refer to Appendix A for information on the submission of documents in other languages.

7. Pursuant to the Decree of the President of the Republic of the 28 December 2000, No. 445, the statements in the applications shall have the status of self-certification; in the case of false documents and false statements penal sanctions foreseen by art. 76 of the above-mentioned decree 455/2000 shall be applied. Should the rules and regulations concerning substitute statements (D.P.R. n. 445/2000 and subsequent modifications and integrations), not be applicable, candidates are however responsible (from a civil, administrative and penal point of view) for their statements.

This Administration reserves the right to ascertain the truthfulness of such statements as governed by laws in force. Candidates who make false statements shall automatically be excluded from enrolment and any grants awarded shall be retroactively withdrawn. Further administrative and/or penal sanctions foreseen by the laws and legislation in force may also be applied.

8. The University Administration cannot be held responsible for documentation which goes astray due to mistaken indications of residence and postal address given by candidates and / or due to the fact that candidates have not communicated any changes or have communicated them too late. Furthermore, this Office cannot be held responsible for any mistakes in postal or telegraphic delivery.

9. The University reserves the right to enforce, even after the public exam is over, sanctions which exclude candidates who have failed to comply with or meet up to requirements herein established.

Article 4 – Admission Procedures

1. Selective assessment for admission to the research doctoral courses is mainly concerned with establishing the candidates’ aptitude for scientific research and is carried out by the Commission in the following manner: qualifications/publications and an interview.

The Commission shall carry out the comparative assessment of the qualifications/publications based on the following criteria:

	Maximum score 60 points
Final degree mark (or exams done in the II level degree course if enrolled on condition)	maximum score 10 points
Table of contents and abstract of the thesis (max 500 words), as well as an extract of the II level degree course or a short essay (max 3000 words reference included)	maximum score 15 points
Publications and other scientific qualifications:	maximum score 5 points
Research project (max 3000 words) drawn up by the candidate in line with one of the research themes of the Doctoral course	maximum score 25 points
Two reference letters	maximum score 5 points
Minimum threshold to be admitted to the following test	40 points

It will then draw up a classification list for those admitted to the interview, which will be posted, before the interview, in the Department concerned and at the link www.fino.unige.it within 29.6.2018.

Candidates who pass the threshold of at least 40/60 will be admitted to the interview.

The interview, which can be in Italian or English, involves the illustration of the candidates' research activities of interest, even on the basis of previous activities stated in their curriculum vitae et studiorum. If candidates obtain a mark of at least 40/60, they will have passed the interview.

During the interview, candidates will have to prove basic knowledge of English.

- In the case of equal grades, the evaluation of candidates' incomes prevails for the assignation of grants, as per D.P.C.M. 9 April 2001, whereas for places without grants, preference is awarded to the younger candidate.
- In order to sit the interview, candidates shall be asked to exhibit a valid identity document.

Article 5 – Examining Commissions and their Functions

- The Chancellor, at the request of the Teaching Body, appoints, by means of a decree, the commission charged with the task of carrying out the selective assessment of the candidates. The commission is made up of at least 3 university professors; they may be integrated by not more than 2 experts, who may also be foreign nationals, from public and private research institutions and structures.
- The examining commission shall establish the assessment criteria before viewing the applications and documentation submitted by the candidates.
- At the close of each selection interviewing session the examining commission shall draw up a list of the names of the candidates examined and their respective marks. The list, after having been undersigned by the President and Secretary of the commission, shall be posted the same day on the department notice-board, or that of another facility, where the exam took place.
- Once the public exam tests have all been completed, the commission shall draw up the general list of successful candidates based on the sum of the marks achieved by each candidate in the single tests.
- The final lists shall be announced on 10 August 2018, and will appear solely on:
  - the noticeboard of the relevant research Departments/facilities for the research courses;
  - the noticeboard of the University;
  - on the Internet address <https://unige.it/usg/it/dottorati-di-ricerca> and www.fino.unige.it.

No information whatsoever shall be posted to candidates' domicile.

Article 6 – Admission to the Courses

- Candidates are admitted to the courses according to the order in which they appear on the final list until all available places have been assigned.
- Research grant holders adequately positioned on the final classification list shall be admitted to the courses without being entitled to a grant. They shall nevertheless maintain their research grant.
- State employees admitted to the doctoral courses during the regular length of time for the course benefit from the leave provided for by collective bargaining or, for civil servants, special leave of absence for study purposes, compatibly with the needs of the administration they belong to, according to art. 2 of Law No. 476 of 13 August 1984, and subsequent modifications, with or without allowance and excluding an explicit waiver, only if they have enrolled for the first time in a doctoral course, whatever the specific field.
- However, the total number of candidates admitted to the courses shall in no case exceed the total number of places available, except for the places in excess as per paragraph 3 of art. 8 of the Rules and Regulations for the Doctoral Research Courses of the University of Genoa.

Article 7 – Grants

- Grants are assigned according to the order of the final classification list.
- Candidates who have been assigned the right to a grant may, in relation to the number and type of grants available, choose one among the various grants according to the order of the final classification list.
- In the case of equal grades, the evaluation of candidates' incomes prevails for the assignation of grants, as per D.P.C.M. 9 April 2001.
- However, candidates who have been awarded a grant for a doctoral course, albeit for a single year, may not benefit from it twice.

5. The simultaneous use of other study grants is not allowed, except for those awarded by national or foreign institutions which integrate student research activities or training by means of trips abroad.
6. The annual gross amount including social security expenses to be paid by the recipient of each grant is indicated Appendix A.
7. The doctoral grant is paid in monthly instalments, lasts one year and is renewed following the positive evaluation of the teaching body showing that the candidate carried out the required research activities in a regular and fruitful way during the previous year.
8. The amount of the doctoral grant shall be increased by 50% for an overall period of not more than 18 months, if the graduate student is authorized by the teaching body to carry out research abroad.
9. Starting from the first year, each graduate student will have, besides the grant, a budget for research activities in Italy and abroad which will not be less than 10% of the grant. If the graduate student does not receive positive evaluation for the renewal of the grant, or forfeits it, the amount not used is available to the University for the same purposes.
10. The grants of the doctoral research courses are subject to the payment of INPS (National Social Insurance Agency) contributions for separate management according to Law No. 335 of 8 August 1995, art. 2, paragraph 26, and subsequent modifications, two thirds charged to the administration and one third to the grant holder. Graduate students benefit from all the associated rights and protection. Study grants enjoy fiscal concessions referred to in art. 4 of Law No. 476 of 13 August 1984.

Article 8 – Schedule and contents of the application

1. Candidates who have been admitted to the doctoral courses shall submit their enrolment applications by means of the relevant online procedure (<https://servizionline.unige.it/studenti/post-laurea/confermaPL>), according to the following deadlines:

Within 10 August	publication of final lists

The abovementioned dates are binding under penalty of expiration and postmarks shall not be deemed acceptable as proof of posting.

If applications are not sent in within these dates, it will be considered as a withdrawal from the place with or without a grant. Even candidates who have not yet graduated must respect the aforementioned deadlines, besides having to send the required self-certification by the 31.10.2018.

Article 9 – Withdrawals and Prohibitions

1. Enrolment on another course which assigns an academic qualification, even from other Universities, is not allowed.
2. Doctoral students with grants who drop out of the course during the year have the right to keep the portion of the grant which corresponds to the period of activity, if and only if the Teaching Body states that the students' activities up to that moment were regular and fruitful.
3. Candidates who are found to have made false statements shall be excluded from the course. Criminal punitive measures for the issuing of false documentation and untruthful statements may also be applied.

Article 10 – Access and Attendance Fees

1. All graduate students must pay the following amounts on enrolment:
  - a) a stamp worth € 16.00 (to be carried out exclusively by means of the on-line services at the following address: <https://servizionline.unige.it/studenti/unigepay20/>)
  - b) the regional right-to-education as per tassa regionale per Regional Law 27 June 2012, No 22, when enrolling.

Article 11 – Organisation of the Courses

1. The course starts officially on 1 of November 2018 and lasts three years.

2. Admission to the doctoral course involves an exclusive and full time commitment.
3. With the approval of the Teaching Body, doctoral students may take part in research activities carried out by the University provided they are in line with their academic studies.
4. Regardless of the subject theme chosen by the candidate as per the aforementioned art. 3, paragraph 3. letter c), during the course the doctoral student shall carry out the research assigned to him/her by the Teaching Body.
5. The Departmental Board will assign a tutor to each doctoral student and they may carry out most of their doctoral activities where the tutor works (designated main venue). The main venue will deal with the assignment of the grants to the beneficiaries directly.
6. Doctoral students, as an integral part of their educational process may, subject to the Teaching Body's permission and without any increase to the grant, undertake support teaching in degree courses and II level degree courses, as well as supplementary teaching, as long as it is well within the maximum limit of forty hours for each academic year. Once the third year of the doctoral course is over, this limit is revoked.
7. Doctoral students may take leave of absence from the course in the following cases which shall be fully and duly certified: maternity, paternity, illness, postgraduate Master degree attendance or attendance of a Tirocinio Formativo Attivo (active apprenticeship for teachers) in the University of Genoa. Absences may be made up at the end of the course. Should this prove unfeasible, graduate students shall sit the final doctorate examinations with the graduate students of the following Ph.D. cycle. Should the course interruption last more than 30 days, grants shall be immediately withdrawn.
8. At the end of each year, doctoral students shall present the Teaching Body with a detailed written account of the activities carried out. The Teaching Body may ask for the account to be discussed according to procedures it has established. Then the Teaching Body, after conferring with the tutor, shall decide on admitting the doctoral student to the following year or to the final exam; should a student's performance be insufficient, they shall ask the Chancellor to order the exclusion of the doctoral student from the course.
9. Before the beginning of each course year, the graduate students, who have been successfully admitted as per the above paragraph, shall apply for enrolment for the following year. Students shall also – if required – pay the first instalment and the regional tax as per art. 10, paragraph 1, letter a), in the amounts established yearly.
10. Though not envisaged in this public notice, the University Rules and Regulations in force at the University of Genoa and the Rules and Regulations for the functioning of the Doctoral Course in Philosophy of the Consorzio Dottorato in Filosofia del Nord Ovest – FINO will be applied.

Article 12 – Conferment of Qualification

1. The qualification of Postgraduate Doctor, abbreviated: "Dott.Ric" i.e. "Ph.D.", is awarded once the course is over following a public discussion of a research dissertation which will contribute to the improvement of knowledge or methodologies in the chosen field of research.
At the end of the discussion, the dissertation, with a joint written motivated decision of the examining commission, is either approved or rejected. The examining commission, with unanimous vote, may assign first class honours for outstanding scientific results.
2. The qualification is awarded jointly by the Universities that are part of the Consorzio FINO.

Art. 13 – Personal Data Protection

1. The personal data supplied by candidates will be collected by the University of Genoa, "Area ricerca, trasferimento tecnologico e internazionalizzazione (Research, Technological Transfer and Internationalization Area) - Settore dottorato e assegni di ricerca (PhD and Research Grants Sector)" and "Area Didattica e studenti (Didactic and Student Area) – Servizio alta formazione (High level academic training services) – Settore alta formazione (High level academic Sector)" and used for selection and career procedures of the graduate students as per Legislative Decree/Executive Order (D.L.vo) No. 196 of 30 June 2003.

Article 14 – Availability and Information

1. This notice of public exam is available on the website of the University of Genoa at the following address <https://unige.it/usg/it/dottorati-di-ricerca>. This English translation is also published at the same address. Should there be any contentions, only the text in Italian shall prevail.
Further information may be obtained directly from the "Area ricerca, trasferimento tecnologico e internazionalizzazione - Settore dottorato e assegni di ricerca" at the email address dottorato-assegni@unige.it.
Information on the educational activities and on the organization of the course are available at the link www.fino.unige.it.

THE CHANCELLOR
